This is a complete game where you can choose to play either in single player mode or in multi-player mode. This game also has new game mechanics, which makes the game a little more interesting. After all, what's not to love about a spaceship shooting asteroids in order to protect the princess of the alien race who has crashed on earth? In single player mode, you have the ability to play through three different game modes. The first mode is the Training Mode, where you can train your skills on the different game levels that will make you a better Asteroids player. The second mode is the Story Mode, where you have to protect the princess. The final mode is the Free Play mode, where you can choose to play any level of the game. The game includes five different modes of play. First is the Asteroids Race, where you have to try to defeat the other player and get as many points as possible by shooting the asteroids that the other player shoots. Next is the First Person Shootout, where you have to shoot the asteroids that the other player shoots while trying to avoid them yourself. The Asteroids Deathmatch is a mode where you have to try to survive in a multi-player game. In this mode, you must shoot the other player and survive as long as you can. There is also a Time Trial mode, where you can test your skills in a multi
